CATCH & SEA

Hosted by Causeway Coast Foodie Tours

North Pier, Portrush Harbour
6.45am

Causeway Coast Foodie Tours, in collaboration with The Causeway Lass and Babushka in Portrush, can offer a truly unique experience unlike anything else found anywhere in Ireland. Leaving Portrush Harbour, just before daybreak in The Causeway Lass, we will catch our breakfast in the crystal clear waters of the Causeway Coast, as the sun slowly rises over The Mull of Kintyre and Rathlin Island.

Your breakfast will be dependent on the variety of fish caught, but Mackerel Surprise is almost certain to be on the menu. The fun of fishing is, 'you never can tell!' At this time of the morning we may well encounter dolphins, basking sharks etc. so it is advisable to bring along a camera. Having caught, cleaned and learned about the days catch; we will head to Babushka, where our bounty will be prepared and paired with local, seasonal produce to create a breakfast to be enjoyed overlooking the West Strand.

PHANTOM PHANTASTIA BOOK LAUNCH
Hosted by Claire Savage - Author

Portrush Coastal Zone, 8 Bath Road, Portrush BT56 8AP
7.30pm - 8.30pm

Official book launch for Claire Savage's new release 'Phantom Phantasia'. Suitable for all ages and, as 'Phantom Phantasia' is a children's novel (aimed at 8-12 year-olds) it would be great to see some young readers in attendance!

North Coast 'man about town', Denis McNeill, will be on hand to have a chat with me at the beginning of the event, and I'll do a few short readings and answer questions - from Denis and from the audience. As mentioned before, it will all be very relaxed and people can come and go throughout the evening.

Dress up! You can come as you wish, of course, but as both MM and PP are about all things magic and mysterious, why not wear a little sparkle and come dressed in your finest Fairyland-inspired fashion...?

Ask the marine expert As you can tell from the book cover, 'Phantom Phantasia' involves a bit of underwater adventuring, so the Coastal Zone is the perfect venue for the event, as it showcases all sorts of marine life inside its walls. Marine biologist, Gary Burrows, who works at the Coastal Zone, will also be on hand at the launch, if any curious minds want to find out more about the creatures featured in the book, and indeed, those resident in and around the North Coast.

Entry is free. Please note: this will be a very informal event, so you're welcome to drop in at any time throughout the evening. Light refreshments available.

HOW TO EXPLODE: THE ILLUSTRATED LIFE OF PATRICK SANDERS

Riverside Theatre, Ulster University, Cromore Road, Coleraine, BT52 1SA

Patrick Sanders (14 July 1976 – 16 January 2017) - illustrator, performer, artist and activist.
Patrick sought to explore and confront stupidity and prejudice in every sphere of his short life, seeking to use his undoubted skills to educate where possible and lampoon where not.

A gentle radical; his art is incendiary only when strictly necessary. His death by suicide in 2017 robbed the world of a unique voice and an emerging talent who was just beginning to get deserved recognition for his inspired and insightful work.

He spoke out against medieval bigotry and oafishness, and used his exceptional artistic talent to imagine a more enlightened, united Northern Ireland. He was central to the grassroots arts scene, and understood its importance as a breeding ground for protest and political transformation. This exhibition is just a small selection of his extraordinary body of work, his legacy, and his unique world view. He will be forever missed. But his work shines on.

This exhibition is dedicated to fearlessness, to glorious mischief, to hope and to love.

Riverside Gallery: Open Monday – Friday 10am – 4pm and during performance and events in the evening and weekends. Free Admission.
