Sat 4 - Sat 25 May      RUBY SERENDIPITY - HANDS ACROSS THE BORDER 2019

Flowerfield Arts Centre, Portstewart
Mon - Fri 9.00am - 5.00pm. Sat 10.00am - 1.00pm

The Northern Ireland Patchwork Guild in association with The Irish Patchwork Society present their 2019 'Hands Across the Border' collaborative show at Flowerfield Arts Centre.

The Northern Ireland Patchwork Guild (established 1979) and the Irish Patchwork Society (established 1981) joined forces for their first joint exhibition in 1991. The 'Hands Across the Border' exhibition has continued every two years since – this year the theme 'Ruby Serendipity' celebrates the 40 anniversary of The N.I. Patchwork Guild. The two organisations meet monthly in their respective locations, and consist of a diverse group of members, with a common interest in fabric, traditional/modern patchwork and quilting. The patchworks exhibited will reflect a wide range of interpretations, including various colours, techniques, fibres and fabric. If you are interested in learning more visit www.northernirelandpatchworkguild.com

LAUNCH: Please join us for the launch at 3pm on Saturday 4 May. Dame Mary Peters will officially open the exhibition. All welcome.

Admission FREE.
